

- HOME
- GREEN LEASE
- STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT
- CHECK-LISTS
- RESOURCES

green lease

A lease is a legally binding agreement between the tenant and the landlord for a specified term and governs the relationship with the leased premises.

There are many steps leading up to the signing of a green lease; there are also important considerations during occupancy and at the time of lease renewal. At each stage of the leasing process, there are opportunities for the parties to collaborate in an effort to achieve the goals of energy efficiency and more sustainable building operations.

Click here for information about the leasing process.

Helpful Links

- Introduction to Green Leasing
- Green Policy Statement
- Green Criteria
- RFP Considerations
- Sample RFP
- Due Dilligence Scorecard

