

Invitation to:

MOUNT SUTRO PRESENTATION
SAN FRANCISCO NATURAL HISTORY SERIES
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2009

Past, Present and Future on Mt. Sutro with Guest speaker Craig Dawson

Craig Dawson will share some uncovered history and update us about recent discoveries and new plans!

Presentations begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. in the Randall Museum Theatre.

Admission is free; donations are always appreciated.

Celebrating Our Urban Wildness: Coyotes to Quail - San Francisco photographer, Janet Kessler, has captured surprising images of thriving wildlife in the midst of a major city - San Francisco. All her photos were taken on her daily walks within the city in 2008. This is an Evolve 2009 related exhibition. For more information on Evolve 2009 please visit: <http://evolve2009.wordpress.com/evolve-2009/> Exhibition: From January 24 through May 28, 2009 Library, Fifth Floor, Wallace Stegner Environmental Center Related Program: Meet the Artist, Wednesday, January 28, 2009, Main Library, Lower Level, Latino/Hispanic Community Meeting Room, 6:30–7:30 p.m. 100 Larkin Street (at Grove)

Seawall Lot 337

Port Commission, tomorrow

ITEM 9B WILL BE HEARD AT 4:15 P.M. (The Commission may decide to hear this item out of order (after any of items 9-12) if Item 9A is completed before 4:15 p.m., but in doing so, the Commission intends to return to Item 9B at 4:15 p.m.)

B. Informational Presentation by Port Staff and the Potential Developer for the 16 Acre Mixed Use Development Opportunity at Seawall Lot 337 (includes AB 8719, Lot 002; AB 9900, Lot 62; AB 9900, Lot 048; and AB 9900, Lot 048H; all bounded generally by China Basin, the San Francisco Bay, Mission Rock Street and Third Street)