The Community InSight Project is a public engagement effort led by the San Francisco Department of the Environment. We want to hear your ideas. Tell us how to make San Francisco the most sustainable city on Earth! We have three questions to help guide discussion:

1. How can we help make your home and neighborhood healthier?
2. What is your vision of a sustainable San Francisco?
3. On a lighter note... What is the worst thing you have done for the environment lately?

Join in the conversation.

Start with closing off Market Street from the Ferry Building to Civic Center...maybe all the way to Castro.

As an aside for the Bay Area Region, every since I can remember, the Bronx River Parkway, which is one of the major roads heading into New York City from the suburbs, closes to all motorized vehicles between White Plains and Yonkers (a 6.5 mile stretch) from 10 am to 2 pm on Sundays during the summer months. If the NYC suburbs have been doing this for decades, why can't we?

We need your help

- One department can't address all the ideas
 - We need to reach out to our networks, and tap into diverse communities in SF
- > Take postcards, post your ideas at ideas4sf.org
- > We're going to be following up to ask about your networks and the best way to connect with them
